Virtues Performing Arts Program

A dynamic drama and music program with a purpose, for kids, 8-11 years.

Proudly offered IN SIDNEY by West Coast Reach Association

WHAT: Girls and boys, 8-11 years, learn the importance and benefits of positive character development through exciting activities in speech arts, song, basic choreography and creative skits.

With an award-winning instructor they practice foundational performance skills, develop self-confidence and discover the importance of teamwork. The program culminates in a special performance about virtues, for friends and family.

WHEN: Thursdays, 4:45-6:00 p.m., September 12 to November 28, 2019 (12 weeks).

WHERE: St. Andrew Church Hall, 9691 Fourth Street in Sidney.

COST: $120.00 for the term (payable to West Coast Reach Association). (See registration overside.)
There is a 20% discount for all siblings participating.

INSTRUCTOR: Anne-Marie Brimacombe

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR: Originally from the Caribbean, and trained at the Royal Academy of Music in London, England, Anne-Marie Brimacombe has taught music and directed outstanding choirs in Canada and in the Caribbean for more than 30 years. Many of her students have become professional musicians or teachers, and her groups have performed with numerous recording artists including Raffi, The Nylons, Ashley MacIsaac, the Chieftains and Anne Mortifee. Mrs. Brimacombe was recipient of the CFAX Arts Leader of the Year Award and the Saanich Peninsula Hearts of the Community Award. She has also been Guest Presenter at the National Association of Canadian Choral Conductors.

ABOUT "REACH": West Coast Reach Association is a registered non-profit organization established in January, 2017 to celebrate diversity and inclusion through the performing arts. Other programs include the Diverse-City Singers, the Reach Performing Company, and the Our Place OutReach Singers.
